2023 INCOME GUIDELINES MEANS SAVING FOR SENIORS

You may be able to lower your co-pay for income based services, such as in-home services, minor home repairs, household systems and accessibility safety modifications.

The PCSF Board of Directors established new income guidelines to reflect current poverty statistics.

Co-pay benefits are determined by the average monthly income received from:

- ◆ Social Security
- ◆ Pension
- ◆ Rental Property
- ◆ Taxable Interest
- ◆ Dividend Earnings

Please review these new guidelines. If your co-pay falls in a new category you may:

- ◆ Call to schedule a reassessment
- ◆ Mail copies of all income documents

If your co-pay level does change, you and your provider will be given notice of the new level and effective date for the change.
