

THE SENIOR SOURCE

2025 INCOME GUIDELINES MEANS SAVINGS FOR SENIORS

You may be able to lower your co-pay for income based services, such as in-home services, minor home repairs, household systems, and accessibility safety modifications. The PCSF Board of Directors established new income guidelines to reflect current poverty statistics. Co-pay benefits are determined by the average monthly income received from:

- Social Security
- Pension
- Rental Property
- Taxable Interest
- Dividend Earnings

Please review these new guidelines. If your co-pay falls in a new category you may:

- Call to schedule a reassessment
- Mail copies of all documents

If your co-pay level does change, you and your provider will be given notice of the new level and effective date for the change.

Couples

- $ 0.00 - $2,129 = No Co-pay
- $2,130 - $3,407 = 25% Co-pay
- $3,408 - $4,684 = 50% Co-pay
- $4,685 - $5,962 = 75% Co-pay
- $5,963 or above = Private Pay Referral

Individuals

- $ 0.00 - $1,569 = No Co-pay
- $1,570 - $2,510 = 25% Co-pay
- $2,511 - $3,451 = 50% Co-pay
- $3,452 - $4,393 = 75% Co-pay
- $4,394 or above = Private Pay Referral
